NOTICE OF SUBMISSION OF A CRIMINAL COMPLAINT

that as per the Reporting Obligations of the Criminal Justice Act 2011 that you have been reported to the Statutory Authorities and named in a formal criminal complaint copied to An Garda Síochána HQ; to the Office of the DPP; to the Minister for Justice; and to the Integrity Ireland HAFTA Database in matters generally summarised as follows: (Summary of allegations/offences)
been reported to the Statutory Authorities and named in a formal criminal complain	(of firm/institution/address)
to the Integrity Ireland HAFTA Database in matters generally summarised as follows: (Summary of allegations/offences)	that as per the Reporting Obligations of the Criminal Justice Act 2011 that you have
to the Integrity Ireland HAFTA Database in matters generally summarised as follows: (Summary of allegations/offences)	been reported to the Statutory Authorities and named in a formal criminal complaint
You are further advised that any attempts to interfere with or obstruct the lawful submission and advancement of the aforesaid complaint, or any attempts to suppress or otherwise improperly conceal said complaint in face of the supporting evidence and/or in context of the sworn affidavit of the complainant would constitute an offence against Section 7 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2010 specifically; "an offence against the administration of justice" which is an arrestable offence. Accordingly, any parties so involved or who are implicated in affiliated unlawful or unconstitutional activities such as misfeasance, malfeasance or nonfeasance (especially by Statutory Authorities or their agents) may be subject to a criminal complaint and/or a citizen's arrest under Section 4 of the Criminal Law Act 1997 whereupon said parties will be delivered to An Garda Siochána for the purposes of surrendering to due process as provided for in legislation. (Print name of complainant)	copied to An Garda Síochána HQ; to the Office of the DPP; to the Minister for Justice; and
You are further advised that any attempts to interfere with or obstruct the lawful submission and advancement of the aforesaid complaint, or any attempts to suppress or otherwise improperly conceal said complaint in face of the supporting evidence and/or in context of the sworn affidavit of the complainant would constitute an offence against Section 7 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2010 specifically; "an offence against the administration of justice" which is an arrestable offence. Accordingly, any parties so involved or who are implicated in affiliated unlawful or unconstitutional activities such as misfeasance, malfeasance or nonfeasance (especially by Statutory Authorities or their agents) may be subject to a criminal complaint and/or a citizen's arrest under Section 4 of the Criminal Law Act 1997 whereupon said parties will be delivered to An Garda Siochána for the purposes of surrendering to due process as provided for in legislation. (Print name of complainant)	to the Integrity Ireland HAFTA Database in matters generally summarised as follows:
You are further advised that any attempts to interfere with or obstruct the lawful submission and advancement of the aforesaid complaint, or any attempts to suppress or otherwise improperly conceal said complaint in face of the supporting evidence and/or in context of the sworn affidavit of the complainant would constitute an offence against Section 7 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2010 specifically; "an offence against the administration of justice" which is an arrestable offence. Accordingly, any parties so involved or who are implicated in affiliated unlawful or unconstitutional activities such as misfeasance, malfeasance or nonfeasance (especially by Statutory Authorities or their agents) may be subject to a criminal complaint and/or a citizen's arrest under Section 4 of the Criminal Law Act 1997 whereupon said parties will be delivered to An Garda Siochána for the purposes of surrendering to due process as provided for in legislation. (Print name of complainant)	(Summary of allegations/offences)
You are further advised that any attempts to interfere with or obstruct the lawful submission and advancement of the aforesaid complaint, or any attempts to suppress or otherwise improperly conceal said complaint in face of the supporting evidence and/or in context of the sworn affidavit of the complainant would constitute an offence against Section 7 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2010 specifically; "an offence against the administration of justice" which is an arrestable offence. Accordingly, any parties so involved or who are implicated in affiliated unlawful or unconstitutional activities such as misfeasance, malfeasance or nonfeasance (especially by Statutory Authorities or their agents) may be subject to a criminal complaint and/or a citizen's arrest under Section 4 of the Criminal Law Act 1997 whereupon said parties will be delivered to An Garda Siochána for the purposes of surrendering to due process as provided for in legislation. (Print name of complainant) submission and advancement of the aforesaid complaint, or any attempts to suppress or otherwise improperly conceal said complaint in face of the supporting evidence and/or in context of the sworn affidavit of the complainant would constitute an offence against Section 7 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2010 specifically; "an offence against the administration of justice" which is an arrestable offence. Accordingly, any parties so involved or who are implicated in affiliated unlawful or unconstitutional activities such as misfeasance, malfeasance or nonfeasance (especially by Statutory Authorities or their agents) may be subject to a criminal complaint and/or a citizen's arrest under Section 4 of the Criminal Law Act 1997 whereupon said parties will be delivered to An Garda Siochána for the purposes of surrendering to due process as provided for in legislation. (Print name of complainant) otherwise improperly conceal said complaint in face of the supporting evidence and/or in context of the sworn affidavit of the complainant would constitute an offence against Section 7 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2010 specifically; "an offence against the administration of justice" which is an arrestable offence. Accordingly, any parties so involved or who are implicated in affiliated unlawful or unconstitutional activities such as misfeasance, malfeasance or nonfeasance (especially by Statutory Authorities or their agents) may be subject to a criminal complaint and/or a citizen's arrest under Section 4 of the Criminal Law Act 1997 whereupon said parties will be delivered to An Garda Siochána for the purposes of surrendering to due process as provided for in legislation. (Print name of complainant)	You are further advised that any attempts to interfere with or obstruct the lawful in context of the sworn affidavit of the complainant would constitute an offence against Section 7 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2010 specifically; "an offence against the administration of justice" which is an arrestable offence. Accordingly, any parties so involved or who are implicated in affiliated unlawful or unconstitutional activities such as misfeasance, malfeasance or nonfeasance (especially by Statutory Authorities or their agents) may be subject to a criminal complaint and/or a citizen's arrest under Section 4 of the Criminal Law Act 1997 whereupon said parties will be delivered to An Garda Siochána for the purposes of surrendering to due process as provided for in legislation. (Print name of complainant)	submission and advancement of the aforesaid complaint, or any attempts to suppress or
Section 7 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2010 specifically; "an offence against the administration of justice" which is an arrestable offence. Accordingly, any parties so involved or who are implicated in affiliated unlawful or unconstitutional activities such as misfeasance, malfeasance or nonfeasance (especially by Statutory Authorities or their agents) may be subject to a criminal complaint and/or a citizen's arrest under Section 4 of the Criminal Law Act 1997 whereupon said parties will be delivered to An Garda Siochána for the purposes of surrendering to due process as provided for in legislation. (Print name of complainant)	otherwise improperly conceal said complaint in face of the supporting evidence and/or administration of justice" which is an arrestable offence. Accordingly, any parties so involved or who are implicated in affiliated unlawful or unconstitutional activities such as misfeasance, malfeasance or nonfeasance (especially by Statutory Authorities or their agents) may be subject to a criminal complaint and/or a citizen's arrest under Section 4 of the Criminal Law Act 1997 whereupon said parties will be delivered to An Garda Siochána for the purposes of surrendering to due process as provided for in legislation. (Print name of complainant)	in context of the sworn affidavit of the complainant would constitute an offence against involved or who are implicated in affiliated unlawful or unconstitutional activities such as misfeasance, malfeasance or nonfeasance (especially by Statutory Authorities or their agents) may be subject to a criminal complaint and/or a citizen's arrest under Section 4 of the Criminal Law Act 1997 whereupon said parties will be delivered to An Garda Siochána for the purposes of surrendering to due process as provided for in legislation. (Print name of complainant)	Section 7 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2010 specifically; "an offence against the
as misfeasance, malfeasance or nonfeasance (especially by Statutory Authorities or their agents) may be subject to a criminal complaint and/or a citizen's arrest under Section 4 of the Criminal Law Act 1997 whereupon said parties will be delivered to An Garda Siochána for the purposes of surrendering to due process as provided for in legislation. (Print name of complainant)	administration of justice" which is an arrestable offence. Accordingly, any parties so agents) may be subject to a criminal complaint and/or a citizen's arrest under Section 4 of the Criminal Law Act 1997 whereupon said parties will be delivered to An Garda Siochána for the purposes of surrendering to due process as provided for in legislation. (Print name of complainant)	involved or who are implicated in affiliated unlawful or unconstitutional activities such of the Criminal Law Act 1997 whereupon said parties will be delivered to An Garda Siochána for the purposes of surrendering to due process as provided for in legislation. (Print name of complainant)	as misfeasance, malfeasance or nonfeasance (especially by Statutory Authorities or their Siochána for the purposes of surrendering to due process as provided for in legislation. (Print name of complainant)	agents) may be subject to a criminal complaint and/or a citizen's arrest under Section 4
(Print name of complainant)	of the Criminal Law Act 1997 whereupon said parties will be delivered to An Garda
(Authorised signature)	Siochána for the purposes of surrendering to due process as provided for in legislation.
	(Print name of complainant)
(Witness / I-I Reference)	(Authorised signature)
	(Witness / I-I Reference)

Any party named herein has the right to contest the contents of this NOTICE by writing to Integrity Ireland via the website 'www.integrityireland.ie'. Any such written submission, provided it meets the required criteria and is personally signed and accompanied by proof of I.D. will be duly logged on the I-I HAFTA Database in the interests of justice, transparency and accountability.