

FORMAL NOTICE & ADVISORY TO TUSLA CEO & THE POLICING AUTHORITY – FEBRUARY 2017

In light of the national scandal that has embroiled TUSLA, An Garda Síochána Management, Garda Commissioner Nóirín O’Sullivan, certain connected journalists, the Minister for Justice Frances Fitzgerald, Taoiseach Enda Kenny and similar others in agencies of the State in the protracted criminal smear campaign as against whistleblower Garda Sgt Maurice McCabe; please be advised that the Integrity Ireland Association has documented evidence of similar, deliberate criminal collusion between personnel engaged by TUSLA and within An Garda Síochána which, in the interests of justice, transparency and accountability, we are making available to all interested parties for the purposes of ensuring that justice is done and that the necessary reforms are undertaken without further hindrance, obfuscation or delays.

In the circumstances, we look forwards to hearing from you with a view to presenting our evidence in the public forum as a matter of urgency.

Yours,

Stephen Manning
